EPISODE #1025

His House in Order

Discussion Questions

1. Where might you be clinging to good things—like family or ministry—that have become disordered because God is no longer the center?

2. How does Jesus' command in Luke 14:26 challenge the way you've viewed love and discipleship?

3. What would it look like for your love, relationships, and decisions to flow from God's love rather than fear, obligation, or self-protection?
