EPISODE #1071

Holy Business

Discussion Questions

1. Are there relationships, fears, or expectations that may be out of order in your love for God and others?

2. In what ways do you still find yourself defending, controlling, or striving instead of leaning into dependency upon Him?

3. What would it look like for you to treat your walk with God as "holy business" instead of something casual or occasional?