EPISODE #1147

A Time of Reckoning: God Is In His House

Discussion Questions

1. Are you allowing the Father to expose what has been hidden? When Holy Spirit brings compromise, concealed motives, or areas of independence into the light, do you respond with humility and honesty, or do you resist, justify, and protect what He is confronting? What might the Father be revealing to you in this present season?

2. Has mixture compromised your exclusive allegiance to the Father? Are there places where the desire for approval, recognition, financial security, or personal influence has become entangled with your obedience to Him? How faithfully are you stewarding His Word, His people, and the assignments He has entrusted to you?

3. Are you responding with genuine repentance or merely acknowledging what has been exposed? What is the difference between being caught, feeling regret, and experiencing the deep transformation of true repentance? Are you willing to receive the Father's correction, make the necessary changes, and allow His life to govern you from within rather than relying on outward religious performance?
