EPISODE #1149

Stable Sons in Unstable Times

Discussion Questions

1. Are you becoming a stable son in unstable times? When circumstances become uncertain, troubling, or overwhelming, do you respond from fear and confusion, or from your oneness with the Father? What is Holy Spirit developing within you so that you can face difficult realities without losing your peace, courage, or faithfulness?

2. Is your allegiance to the Father greater than your desire for security, influence, or approval? Whether you are positioned inside or outside systems of influence, are you remaining faithful to the assignment the Father has entrusted to you? What can the examples of Moses and Joseph teach you about standing firmly with God without being intimidated or seduced by earthly power?

3. Are you allowing the Father to prepare you for what lies ahead? Have you become distracted by the troubles around you, or are you remembering and continuing in what the Father has already spoken? What would it look like to remain alert, sober, and steadfast while allowing the life of Christ within you to produce the strength and undisturbed composure needed for the days ahead?
